NECNON ARCHIEP. MECHLINIEN. TYPOGRAPHUS

"When the Vatican Edition began coming off the press in the first decade of this century, its strongest supporters did not perhaps expect it to last until the distant 1960."

These are the words of Monsignor Francis P. Schmitt, published in 1959 in Caecilia Magazine. I can mimic his words now, at the close of 2008, when I mention how, when Canon Jules Van Nuffel and his confreres started harmonizing Gregorian chant in the 1940's (so as to keep busy and not be drafted into the Second World War, according to a student of Peeters), they never dreamed that in sixty years it would be so sought after that all 2,700 pages would have to be carefully scanned and preserved online. Nor would they have imagined that the impetus for this would come, not from professional musicians or college professors, but from ordinary folks who love chant and want to give the very best to God.

May our Savior grant that we not only enjoy this wonderful work of art, but (more importantly) allow its beauty to help us pray and live the Holy Texts, so carefully decorated and ornamented by this lovely musical garment.

CONTAINED IN THIS PDF FILE:

(1) Preface by Dr. Daniel Politoske

(2) Index of the current NOH volume

(3) Information on how to donate and make possible more projects like this one (Please note: no amount is too small)

(4) Introductory material by Monsignor Jules Van Nuffel, producer of the NOH

(5) Instructions on how to sing from the "pure" Vatican Edition of the chant
(The NOH corresponds to the rhythm of the "pure" Editio Vaticana, not the rhythmic markings in the Liber Usualis)

(6) Some tips on how to use PDF documents

Corpus Christi Watershed thanks Dr. Daniel Politoske for providing the original NOH books that were scanned, and providing a Preface.

Corpus Christi Watershed thanks Mr. James Ridley for designing the beautiful new covers that enshrine these wonderful Gregorian accompaniments. E-mail Mr. Ridley

Preface

Nova Organi Harmonia is a series of eight volumes of chant for the Roman rite with organ accompaniments.

It includes propers of the time, propers of the saints, common of the saints, and the Kyriale and Missa pro defunctis.

The accompaniments were written by organists in the Low Countries, who provided relatively simple and elegant harmonic support that enhances chant.

The chordal foundation shows concern for the modal harmonies inherent in chant with little emphasis on tertian harmonies.

The series was published by H. Dessain in Mechelen (Malines), Belgium.

Dear friend of the Catholic arts,

If you appreciated downloading the Nova Organi Harmonia instantly and totally free of cost, please consider making a donation to Corpus Christi Watershed, the 501(c)3 non-profit Catholic Artist Institute that made this project possible.

We operate solely on your generous donations!

Please note: No donation is too small.

 * Donate to Corpus Christi Watershed here*: http://corpuschristiwatershed.org/

Watershed also owes a debt of thanks to the initial donors who made this project possible. Thank you!

The Nova Organi Harmonia is based on the "pure Vaticana" rhythm of the Vatican Edition Graduale, and a short essay on that rhythmic method can be found on the next few pages.

To see how the Nova Organi Harmonia compares to other chant accompaniments, please visit: http://chabanelpsalms.org/introductory_material/modus_operandi_modal_accompaniment.htm

Finally, Corpus Christi Watershed thanks the three men who were most responsible for the Nova Organi Harmonia: Abbot Joseph Pothier, Canon Jules Van Nuffel, and Maestro Flor Peeters.

CORPUS CHRISTI WATERSHED This is an English translation of the NOH essay by Monsignor Jules Van Nuffel found in Pars V

Archdiocese of Malines

To Monsieur Canon Van Nuffel
Director of the Institute of Lemmens

M. Canon,

We are delighted to learn that you have successfully published the much-anticipated NOVA ORGANI HARMONIA.

This work of great scope could not have been undertaken without the collaboration of skilled masters familiar with Gregorian melodies under the direction of a leader both long prepared for this task and motivated by his ardent love of sacred music. To ensure the greatest possible unity of views and ideas, it is necessary that composers belong to the same school of religious music. The Lemmens Institute of Malines is one of the singular artistic centers that makes this possible: the Institute has undertaken the noble and very useful mission of providing our churches with organ accompaniment that both conforms to the liturgy and is accessible to every skill level. Everyone is aware of the brilliant reputation that this Institute has already acquired in the domain of sacred music: the edition of the NOVA ORGANI HARMONIA is a new manifestation of its noble and prolific activity in the services of divine religion.

Soon, M. Canon, you will have been leading this activity for twenty-five years with your ardent drive, your elevated ideal of religious art, and your desire to improve always. The NOVA ORGANI HARMONIA, the fruit of your initiative and your perseverance, will be the commemorative monument of this remarkable anniversary.

Is it necessary to wish for the success of your work? It meets the expectations of so many that it is guaranteed to find the best reception in the widest circles. Henceforth, the harmonies that your work transcribes, will come to life, rising under the sanctuary archways, combining with the most sublime acts of the catholic liturgy, mixing with the prayers, supplications, and thanksgiving of the Church, and expressing the most profound sentiments of the religious soul.

We gladly bless the work that comes into being in our diocese, the Christian artists who have lent their gifted collaboration, and all those who will be inspired by the accompaniment of Gregorian chant.

J.E. Card. Van ROEY,

NOVA ORGANI HARMONIA

AD GRADUALE

Several years ago, in order to realize a project of personal interest as well as to fulfill frequent requests from various circles, we considered one day developing and publishing a new accompaniment for Gregorian chants.

Conscious of the enormous labor that a work of such scope would require, and knowing on what slippery terrain we would engage ourselves, we decided to postpone execution until, after careful consideration and much deliberation, we could formulate a precise and definitive plan that would satisfy all of our collaborators.

This preliminary cooperation proved fruitful, and the Nova Organi Harmonia could be justly considered the work of the entire Lemmens institute. Surpassing the means of one or two people, the project in question was produced through the close collaboration of the director and the professors of the Institute, with such success that the organ accompaniment of all the Gradual – without excepting or omitting a single melody – could be sent to press after a relatively short period of time.

Although the parts of the work were harmonized by different individuals, giving each harmonization a unique color – which one cannot hold against us – the unity of style and conception is nonetheless guaranteed to assure a perfect homogeneity of the work as a whole.

We emphasize that we did not intend in any way to challenge either the merit nor the historical impact of the Organum Comitans of our venerable predecessors, Messieurs Alph. and Al. DESMET and M.O. DEPUYDT; we, more than any others, respect its importance, as it constituted, for the era in which it appeared – nearly thirty years ago – a pioneering work. The Organum Comitans holds a place of honor in both the history of sacred music and of our Institute.

Since then, we have had the privilege of closely studying the New Vatican edition, so as to examine in depth the structure, spirit, and character of new Gregorian melodies both individually and in relation to the organ accompaniment which, in our opinion, fits very well. On the other hand, the musical art has evolved since then, producing certain undeniable advantages and influencing all composition, including Gregorian harmony.

These favorable circumstances, including the exceptional experience in Gregorian art of the eminent professors of the Institute, increased our confidence in the likely success of our endeavor. Additionally, we could never have undertaken a task of such great scope and difficulty without the prospect of a satisfactory result nor without conviction in the usefulness of this work. In effect, so many musicians wanted to have a Gregorian accompaniment which, unlike the majority of similar works, offered both suitable harmonization and easy execution. We sought to produce a Gregorian accompaniment whose artistic value was not compromised by its ease of execution.

The Nova Organi Harmonia demanded of each of us an unusual commitment; we have dedicated to it the best of our energies. Would it be, therefore, presumptuous on our part to be satisfied with the result and to expect its welcome reception in the musical world?

We have established the following two principles:

1) The accompaniment must be as smooth as possible and must be suited to the specific character of the organ part
2) It is necessary to adhere to the laws of archaic Gregorian style as well as those of oratorical rhythm

In examining and listening to similar works, we had noted several instances where the simultaneous motion of all the accompanying voices produced a disagreeable effect and made the organ part seem uneven and forced. A calm and steady organ part is necessary above all in the legato style. However, maintaining this style in the context of a flowing motion like that of Gregorian melody requires its consistent application to shared notes in the accompanying voices and a smooth bass line. We have neglected nothing in getting to this point.

We also noted, not surprisingly, changes of harmonies and certain chord placements on unaccented syllables or notes. Such an arbitrary accompaniment gives an impression of unrest and destroys the rhythm, especially when the pedal sustains the accompaniment. This is why the accompaniment of a simple psalm verse is a very delicate matter as the changes in harmony must suit the rhythm of each verse. This is demonstrated in the complete harmonization of the verse and of the Gloria Patri that we have joined to each Introit.

Based on these experiences, we have accepted on principle the rhythmic framework of the Gregorian melody as a guide for the placement of harmonies, passing tones, ornamentation, appoggiaturas, etc. We accepted the general rules of melodic execution as outlined in the Latin introduction of the Vatican addition.

This understanding of harmonization provides dual support for the cantor(s) in the melody and rhythm; and since all Gregorian accompaniment serves principally as support for the cantors, we believe we have chosen the best model for harmonization.

We did not believe it necessary to emphasize each small rhythm because it would have seemed excessive; thus, our accompaniment has the requisite flexibility to suit the Gregorian performance adopted by the different schools.

XI.

This rhythmic and harmonic fusion of the vocal performance and the organ accompaniment constitutes one of the characteristic principles of our harmonization. To arrive at this point without creating unintentional complexity while maintaining an easy organ part, we drew upon the many resources in the arsenal of harmony and counterpoint. Throughout, however, we used harmonies appropriate to the ancient modes of Gregorian chant.

Our harmonization appears, therefore, like a well-tailored suit that fits the contours of Gregorian melody, no longer like a flowing jacket that hides the Gregorian form and blunts its contours.

To treat harmony and rhythm in this manner was a difficult matter. Facing numerous problems, large and small, that arose constantly, we understood that a flawless harmonization of Gregorian chant cannot be created so simply, no matter the competence and ability of the organist or harmonist.

Our accompaniment, of which we are confident, will be more perfectly understood when it is studied and analyzed

1st according to its relationship to Gregorian melody and rhythm

2nd concerning its harmonic foundation

1) according to its relationship to Gregorian melody and rhythm, noting:
   a) the general design of the melody
      b) the manner in which the large arsis and thesis are complemented by a corresponding tension or a relaxation in the accompaniment
      c) the exact placement of harmonies, and similarly the movement in the intermediate voices, notably the accented syllable and the first note of the groups
      d) the special manner of treating the pressus, quilisma, salicus, mora vocis, etc…., etc…
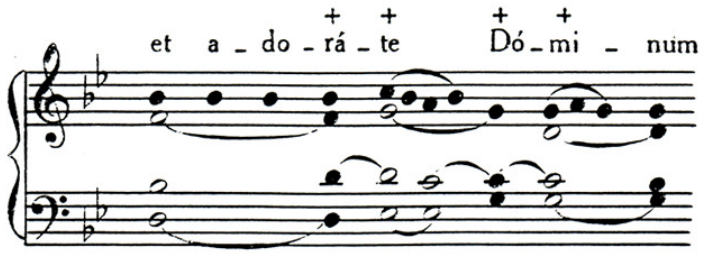
2) regarding the harmonic foundation, noting:
   a) the richness of one part;
   b) the simplicity of execution of the other part

We call to the attention of plain-song singers in particular the resolution we provide for several typical formulas of Gregorian chant and the rhythmic advantages that result:

1) The accented syllable, articulated by a single note, is followed by a groupe placed on the following syllable. Note how we attempted to emphasize in a flexible way the accented syllable and at the same time the first note of a melodic group.



Note: When, for particular reasons, double accentuation is not possible without creating an unpleasant effect, we prefer, in principle, to emphasize the group and not the accentuated syllable.

XII.

An exception could be made for groups of little melodic importance which one covers in emphasizing the accentuated syllable. The two following resolutions are thus admissible, though we give preference to the second:

2) The same syllable receives a punctum followed by a group. Consequently, it might be advantageous to place in the accompaniment two rhythmic nuances, the first on the punctum, the second on the groupe that follows:

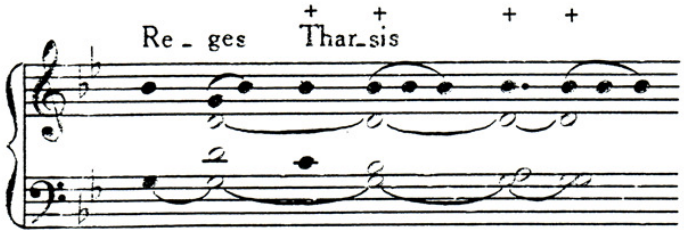
3) For the same rhythmic motives, a salicus will be lightly emphaized on the first as well as the second note of the group, especially when the first note of the salicus is the same pitch as the preceding note:

4) The succession of the distrophæ, tristrophæ, and virgæ is distinctly articulated by a motion written in one of the accompanying voices, in accordance with the necessary echoes in the vocal execution:



5) The harmonic support of the first note of a group, being of little melodic importance, can be emphasized in particular rhythmic motives. This is the case when the first note of the group is the same pitch as the last note of the preceding group or on the same plane as the preceding note. Otherwise, if it is a small passing group without melodic importance, it can be preferable to not emphasize this group:

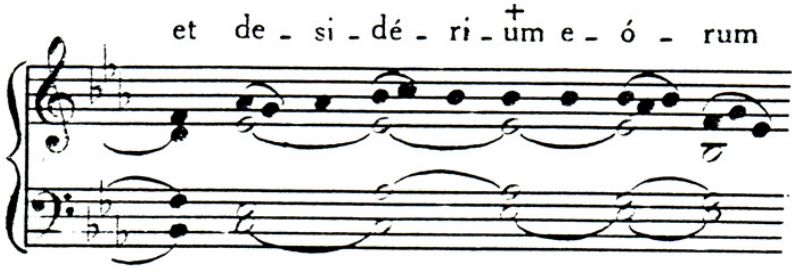
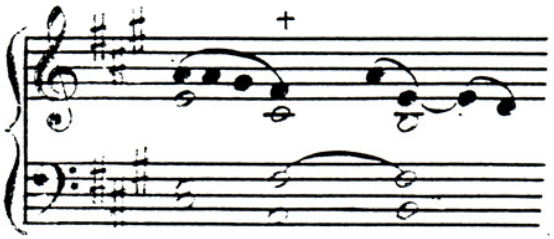
6) The last note of a group extended by a mora vocis outside of the fundamental harmony of the group receives a discreet harmonic resolution:

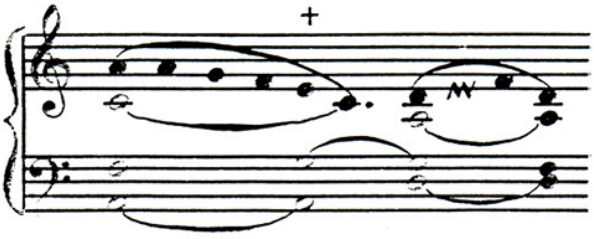
7) In the passages sung recto tono, the succession of harmonies will be arranged according to the rhythm of the recitation of the text:



8) The last note of a group, when it occupies the antepenultimate place before the shared note of the pressus minor is sometimes emphasized in the accompaniment; this note receives in addition a secondary accent in the vocal execution:

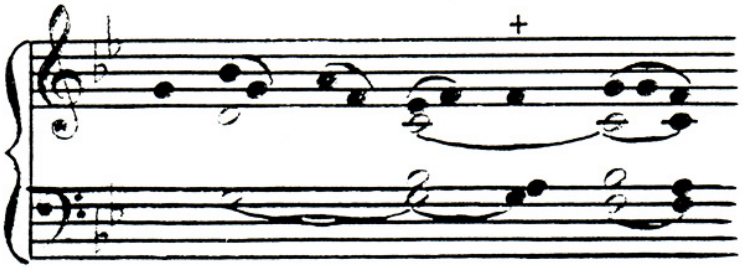


9) We also sometimes emphasize the rhythmic-melodic division of a composite group when this is advantageous either for the harmony or the voice leading, or, above all, for practical execution:

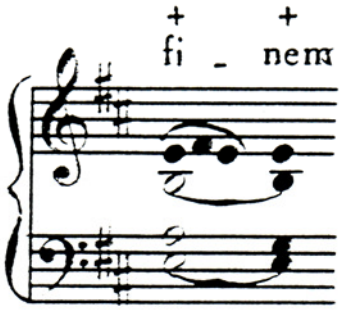


XIV.

10) An isolated punctum sung at the same pitch as the preceding group, benefits from being set in relief against a light harmony:



11) The last note of a final cadence sung on another syllable but on the same pitch, ordinarily requires a supporting harmony, preferably introduced by a ritard.



We ask our readers to carefully examine similar examples that occur on nearly every page of our harmonization. Occurring in close relation with the complete melody and harmony, these again clearly demonstrate all our intentions. Organists who understand the flexibility of Gregorian rhythm will soon grasp – we hope – the range and subtleties of our harmonic and rhythmic solutions. They will develop a taste for it and will congratulate themselves for having understood these solutions, which are all the more beneficial for the vocal execution itself.

We invite musicians to take into consideration, not only from a rhythmic standpoint, but also from a harmonic and polyphonic point of view:

a) the movement of the lines reserved for the intermediary voices in polyphony, that of the tenor and especially that of the bass
b) the constant and varied use of shared notes in different voices
c) the pleasing use of pedal notes in the bass, tenor, and even alto
d) the frequent application of conjunct motion in the movement of voices
e) the richness of harmonic nuances obtained by minimal movement of voices
f) the rigorously modal character of the accompaniment

Numerous applications of these diverse devices appear in the body of this work, and we consider it superfluous to include them here.

In basing our work on the principles duly established, we did not believe it necessary to strictly adhere to those principles without permitting exceptions. Thus, for aesthetic reasons, w have not removed certain fifths and octaves, the elimination of which would have caused many discordant resolutions, nor have we absolutely condemned the free entrance and the resolution of certain dissonances. In the case of conflict between the rule and the aesthetic solution, we have always favored flexibility. This license will not disrupt the strictness nor the archaic and logical harmonization of the work.

XV. When the Nova Organi Harmonia is submitted to a detailed examination and to a comparative study, with greatest interest we will publish a practical manual of our Gregorian accompaniment. It will be the methodological synthesis and will be useful to this work. It will facilitate the analysis not only of formulas, as we just did in the preface, but of a great number of varied examples, and it will not fail to point out, in justifying them, the accepted exceptional solutions.

INDICATIONS PRATIQUES

I. TRANSCRIPTION DE LA MELODIE GREGORIENNE

a) La note de la mélodie grégorienne est figurée par le signe

b) Les notes liquescentes ou notes coulées : cephalicus et epiphonus, par un point rond, noir et d'un format plus petit
c) Les losanges formant un ancus par des points noirs de même format

d) La virga isolée par un point noir suivi d'un petit point

e) La mora vocis aussi par un point noir suivi d'un point noir

f) Le quilisma par le signe

g) Les groupes sont démarqués par des ligatures; elles répondent fidèlement à la neumatique du Graduale romanum.

h) Le pressus minor est indiqué par une ligature entre la dernière note du premier groupe et la première note du groupe suivant

i) Le salicus se distingue du scandicus par la coupe de la ligature sur la deuxième note du salicus qui reçoit l'accent

j) L'oriscus est figuré par une note noire de format ordinaire et se distingue de la mora vocis après le groupe

k) Quand un quilisma se trouve dans la seconde partie d'un groupe composé, la ligature coupée renvoie également à la note qui précède le quilisma

l) Les distrophæ et tristrophæ, quand elles se suivent, sont marquées par des ligatures spéciales

II. Notation adopted for the accompanying voices

a) In the accompanying voices, we use, in addition to the black dot the sign . This sign has an indeterminate value and lasts until the following note in the same voice.

b)When an accompanying voice passes to a unison with another voice, we indicate this motion of voices with a transverse line.

We use rather frequently these transverse lines to avoid the redoubling of voices that complicates the organ part.

c) When the fundamental note of one chord passes to the tenor voice in the following chord, this movement is marked by a dotted line, only to call to attention the necessary legato.

d) The same applies when the note of the tenor becomes the fundamental note of the following chord.

e) When the bass and tenor move into unison, we indicate this by a doubled note.

f) When these two notes then continue in unison, we limit ourselves to writing a single note.

III. Execution

a) Our accompaniment always presupposes a connected style of organ playing, except at the end of each grand period indicated by a large bar crossing the two staves. As for all other pauses: for the bar and the half-bar, which exactly correspond with those in the Graduale Romanum, the last chord must remain closely connected to the first chord of the following phrase. *

b) Organists will easily discern the passages that lend themselves well to the accompaniment of the pedal. These are generally the parts harmonized in open position. On the other hand, the passages in close position are less suited to this type of execution, such as, for example, the first intonation of the Alleluia (where the reprise in open position lends itself better to the use of pedal). The close position is used rather frequently in the intonation of the verset after the Alleluia, as well as that of the second part of the Gradual.

The Rhythm of the Vatican Edition

"In the Vatican edition, the morae vocis shall be indicated by a blank space of equal and unchanging width, and four sorts of bars shall be used . . . ."

—Resolution no. 8, noted in the minutes of the Commission for the Vatican Edition (29 June, 1904) Combe, The Restoration of Gregorian Chant: Solesmes and the Vatican Edition, 272.

In spite of the confusion that has existed since its introduction more than a century ago, it must be understood that the Vatican Edition of Gregorian chant is truly a rhythmic edition. With one exception, the "pure" Vatican Edition notates the rhythm by the same means that Dom Joseph Pothier's Liber Gradualis employed. This is quite natural because (1) Dom Pothier was in charge of creating the Vatican Edition; (2) his publications were in wide use at the time; and, most importantly, (3) it was ultimately decided to use Pothier's Liber Gradualis and Antiphonale as the basis for the Vatican Edition. Furthermore, large sections of the Preface to Pothier's Liber Gradualis[1] were adopted verbatim for the Preface to the Vatican Edition.[2]

The Vatican Edition presupposes an equalist interpretation. Since the late Renaissance, the mensuralist interpretation (which assigned different time values to chant notes with different shapes) had been accepted as the correct rhythmic interpretation of chant, and this was a great obstacle to Pothier's work of Gregorian restoration. Today, one can easily see the way the melodies were sung during the nineteenth century by comparing the chant notation of the "corrupt" Gregorian editions to the corresponding organ accompaniment books (written in modern notation).[3] Here is an example:

SCHILDKNECHT 1892 Page [50] : Mass II for a Virgin/Martyr

Having studied the Medieval manuscripts, Pothier became convinced that the notes were shaped differently in the Medieval manuscripts to make them easier to sing, not because they were intended to be sung with the rhythm of the "measured" music of Renaissance polyphony (with longa, brevis, semi-brevis, etc.). A surprisingly explicit reminder of Pothier's view was published in the Vatican Preface:

7. In themselves the descending diamond notes, which in certain neums follow the culminating note, have no special time-value ⁋.

1 Both the 1883 and 1895 editions.

2 The now legendary Preface to the Vatican Edition will be referred to as the "Vatican Preface." This article focuses on the second part of the Vatican Preface, which gives the "Rules for Interpretation."

3 Thousands of pages of chant accompaniments were published in the nineteenth century, especially by Friedrich Pustet.

I. The Rhythmic Notation

The rhythm of the Vatican Edition is not notated by means of dots, lines, dashes, or differently shaped neums. The rhythmic notation is more subtle, and sometimes leaves room for interpretation by the choir director. The first rhythmic sign used in the Vatican Edition is the bar:

Before 1. and 4., a ritardando is often taken. Pothier himself seemed to favor a pronounced ritardando before the final division (as evidenced by the few precious recordings we have of him conducting chant). Before 2. and 3., a smaller break is required.

The duration of the ritardando is not specified, and this has led to various interpretations. One of the major differences among the different schools is what to do with a spondee coming before a bar (whereas all are in agreement when it comes to a dactyl in the same place).[4] There are literally thousands of examples like this one in the Kyriale, Graduale, and Antiphonale:

Some schools will always double the length of both notes on "nóbis" (A & B). Other schools tend to lengthen only the final note (B). Some schools treat each individual case differently. Some schools claim to give a slight emphasis to the tonic accent of "nóbis" (A) and a longer length to the final note (B), but this is difficult in practice.

In conclusion, Dom Pothier seems to have left it up to individual choir directors to decide the length of each ritardando before the different bars.

II. The Melismatic Mora Vocis

If one knows that about the ritardando required before the various bars, one can sing through almost the entire Kyriale and Antiphonale without a single problem. However, the Graduale is quite different, because of its numerous melismas.

As the Vatican Preface explains, the "blank" space of a notehead or more in the Vatican Edition indicates that one must insert a mora vocis (that is, a ritardando and/or pause). To distinguish this type of mora vocis from the ritardando that is required before a bar, the term "melismatic mora vocis" will be used henceforth.[5]

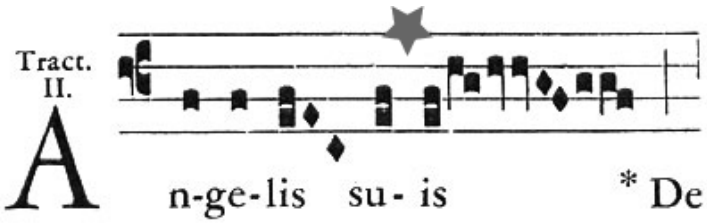
4 A spondaic word has the accent on the penultimate syllable (e.g. Páter). A dactylic word has the accent on the antepenult (e.g. Fílius).

5 What is remarkable is that the Vatican Preface was not issued with the Vatican Edition Kyriale (1905), but with the Vatican Edition Graduale (1908). This is akin to publishing a vehicle's operating instructions three years after issuing the vehicle itself. The thought may have been that singers would know to apply the same rules they had been applying to the Pothier books. Still, this approach seems open to criticism: why not clearly state the rules of rhythmic interpretation when the Vatican Edition Kyriale was first published? It is unanimously accepted that the Vatican Preface rules for interpretation

For example, the following example has no melismatic mora vocis, since there are no melismas with the space of a notehead or more (remember that the syllables change at the star, so it is not a melisma):



This example is also devoid of any melismatic morae:

However, the following example would have a mora vocis at the arrow (because it has a blank space of a notehead or more). However, that is the only melismatic mora vocis present. There is not a melismatic mora vocis at either of the places below a star, because those instances have a change of syllables, and there can be no melisma where syllables change.

This example has a melismatic mora vocis on the neum above the word "nos" (because there is the blank space of a notehead or more at the arrow):

apply "retroactively" to the Vatican Edition Kyriale (and, as mentioned above, there are very few melismatic morae in the Kyriale anyway). It seems probable that the Preface was not issued in 1905 (with the Kyriale) due to internal disagreements among members of the Pontifical Commission (of which Pothier was the president). However, this fascinating history will not be treated here, since it is the subject of several books. In this author's view, the most valuable sources (available in English) treating this history are:

Combe, Pierre. The Restoration of the Gregorian Chant: Solesmes and the Vatican Edition. Trans., Theodore Marier. The Catholic University of America Press: Washington D.C., 1969.

Wagner, Peter. Der Kampf gegen die Editio Vaticana Pamphlet. Graz: Styria, 1907. Published in English as "The Attack on the Vatican Edition: A Rejoinder." Caecilia 87 (1906): 10-44.

The following example shows the way an editor who put the Vatican Edition into modern notation (there were many such editors!) chose to notate that melismatic mora vocis:

DR. F. X. MATHIAS 1911 Graduale

For the sake of curiosity, we include Pothier's editions:

Dom Pothier's Liber Gradualis (1883)

Dom Pothier's Liber Gradualis (1895)

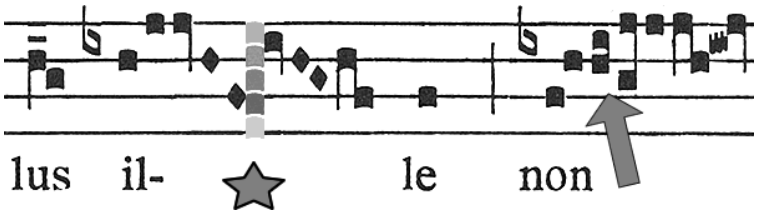
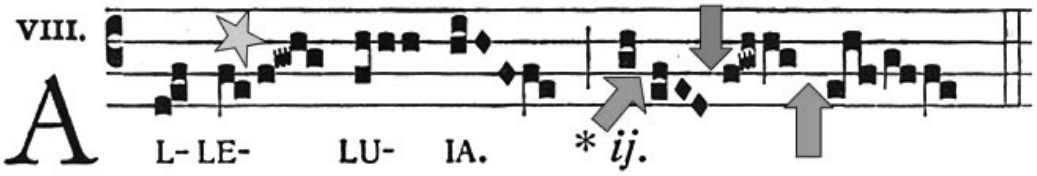
When singing, it can be difficult to instantly know where a melismatic mora vocis is indicated. For example, there is a melismatic mora at the star but not at the arrow in the following example. Above the star, "imaginary" noteheads are added for the reader to verify that there truly is at least one notehead of blank space:



In the following example, there are three melismatic morae (indicated by arrows). However, there is not a melismatic mora at the star, because there is not the space of a notehead or more.



III. Different Schools and Interpretations

The student who carefully studies the various editions of the Vatican Edition will notice several things:

(1) Because the rhythm of the chant depended on the spacing, no publisher was allowed to change the official text in any way. In a note from the Vatican publisher,[6] publishers were reminded that they must adhere strictly to the spacing of the official Vatican Edition when it comes to melismas. They were also reminded that the space is measured against the "custos" at the end of the line when the melisma is interrupted and must continue on the next line.[7] Still, instances can be found where publishers got

7 Most publishers did not want to bother doing that, so they almost always end a melismatic line with some kind of bar.

"sloppy," and, in spite of the injuction from the Vatican, altered the spacing between the notes in melismas. In such an instance (i.e. where different editions have different spacing), one must have recourse to the Vatican Press edition to find out whether a melismatic mora was intended.

(2) Most of the editors felt that Vatican Edition was not practical when it came to the notation of the melismatic mora vocis, so many invented their own system of notation, which was then superimposed on top of the Vatican Edition. This is understandable, since (as eluded to above) it often happens that the only way a singer can tell if a melismatic mora vocis was intended is to place the book by one's nose and gaze outward. Doing this makes it possible to see whether there really is the space of a notehead.

(3) The idea of "space" indicating the mora vocis is foreign to modern musicians, but makes more sense when one considers this excerpt from the Preface to the Vatican Edition:

> The reason which demands the joining together of the notes of the same neum, both in the musical text and in the singing of it, also requires that the neums should be marked off from one another alike for the eye and for the ear : and this is done in various ways according to various contexts.

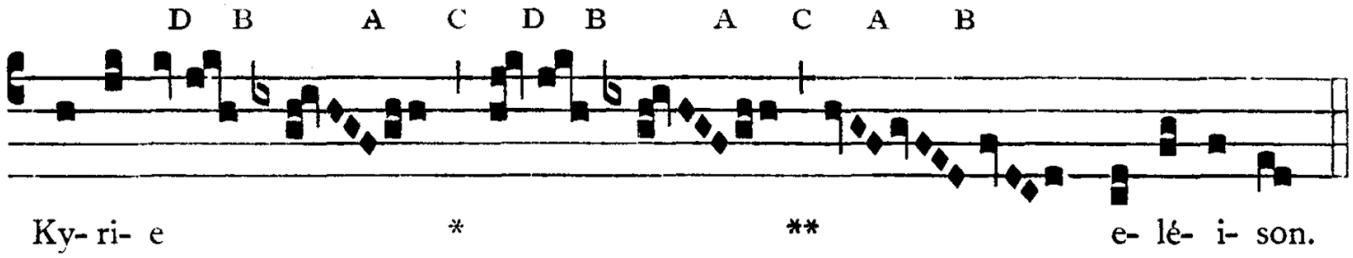
In other words, the sections of the melisma are apparent to the ears when one hears morae, while the same sections are apparent to the eyes when one sees spacing. Dom Pothier dwells on this idea at length in the Preface to his Liber Gradualis.

(4) There are often discrepancies between the various editions. Incidentally, out of all the editions, the Solesmes editions published by Dom Mocquereau are the least faithful when it comes to adherence to the Vatican rhythm.[8]

IV. Additions and Subtractions from Pothier's Rhythmic Notation

In Pothier's original Preface to his Liber Gradualis, he said that if more space is given for a melismatic mora vocis, the pause should be longer and vice versa. This seems to have been abandoned with the publication of the Vatican Edition (and could possibly be explained in principle[9] by the quote given at the start of this document).

However, there is one thing that did not appear in Pothier's Preface, but was added in the Vatican Preface, namely example (D):



Observe that a tailed note, (D), immediately followed by a neum which it commands does not indicate a breathing but a rather longer pause.

8 The explanation for this is that Dom Mocquereau was trying to match the St. Gall rhythmic markings, rather than adhere to the Vatican Edition. Solesmes published several pamphlets clearly stating this fact (cf. Plainchant and Solesmes, by Paul Cagin and André Mocquereau, published in 1905).

9 N.B. the words "equal and unchanging."

With regard to example (D) and the explanation for it, it must be understood that this was a very poorly phrased section of the Vatican Preface and has led to serious consequences. As a matter of fact, the Latin wording employed could be translated as either "preceded by" or "followed by" a neum subordinate to it.[10] Some editors translate it as "preceded by" while others translate it as "followed by," with obvious (conflicting) results. Furthermore, in example (D) Dom Pothier left the required notehead of space, but the explanation does not require that space. Suffice it to say that each and every edition treats instances of example (D) differently, and many are internally inconsistent. Furthermore, one cannot have recourse to the earlier Pothier editions for clarification because (as stated) this rhythmic rule was mysteriously invented for the Vatican Edition.

When the student finds different interpretations for melismatic morae in the different editions, one need not necessarily infer sloppiness or ill intentions. Sometimes, the editor was doubtless trying to be rhythmically consistent (when the same melodic passage occurs in more than one Proper, for example). It is also possible that some editors were trying to correct what they perceived to be typos in the Vatican Edition, and having recourse to the earlier "tradition" of the Pothier books in use for decades. The fact that the Vatican Edition contains errors cannot be denied, and typos are entirely understandable, considering how quickly these massive volumes were published. In his book, Joseph Gogniat[11] has pointed out some indisputable Vatican Edition typos; for example, the inconsistent application of liquescents.

Finally, with regard to the rhythm of the quilisma, it could be noted that the Vatican Preface seems to allow for the possibility of lengthening the first note (as has become traditional) when it says:

> 5. There is another kind of tremolo note, i. e., the Quilisma, which appears in the chant like a "melodic blossom". It is called "nota volubilis" and "gradata", a note with a trill and gradually ascending. If one has not learnt how to execute these tremolo or shaken notes, or, knowing how to render them, has nevertheless to sing with others, he should merely strike the preceding note with a sharper impulse so as to refine the sound of the Quilisma rather than quicken it.

V. Who Produced the Vatican Edition?

Much confusion exists with regard to whether the Catholic Church officially adopted the "Solesmes Edition" of the chant for the Vatican Edition. To understand the true state of things, one must realize that Dom Joseph Pothier entered the Solesmes congregation in 1859 and published his Liber Gradualis in 1883 along with several other important works on chant. In 1893 Dom Pothier was appointed Prior of Ligugé, a Solesmes daughterhouse. Then, in 1895, he became Abbot of St. Wandrille, another Solesmes daughterhouse. When Dom Pothier left Solesmes, his student Dom Mocquereau took over where he left off, and quickly started experimenting with different methods of publishing chant as well as modifying many of Pothier's ideas. It is enlightening to study these early Mocquereau editions and note the evolution of his notation, sometimes changing from month to month. As stated above, Dom Pothier used his editions as the basis for the Vatican Edition (especially the Graduale and Antiphonale). In this sense, one can say that the Vatican Edition was the "Solesmes chant," because Pothier published his seminal works while at Solesmes.

10 The writer owes this linguistic point, along with so much of his knowledge and interest in this subject, to a humble servant of Christ who will be rewarded "in secret." (Matthew 6:6)

11 Little Grammar of Gregorian Chant: to Propagate the Principles Contained in the Vatican Edition. Fribourg: Switzerland, 1939.

To give just one example of the ways Dom Mocquereau departed from his teacher, this excerpt from Mocquereau's 1903 Manuale should suffice:

5. — All dotted notes.

— In the former editions of the Solesmes books, the mora vocis or long notes at the end of groups were marked by blank spaces. Now these spaces are used in two cases only :

1) in the Salicus, between the first and second notes.

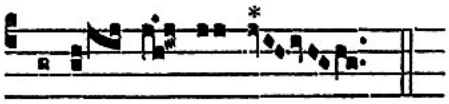
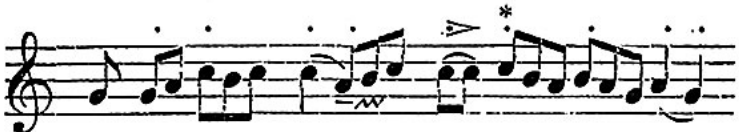
2) in some passages where two notes on the same degree must be uttered separately, v. g.



de-li- cto- rum.



de- li- cto- rum.

In this case there is an ictus on the note marked thus *.

But in neither case does the blank space mark a lengthening of the preceding note.

VI. Looking Back at the Vatican Edition a Century Later

To Dom Mocquereau belongs the credit for advancing the scientific studies of Medieval chant manuscripts in an unparalleled way, and his scholarship in this area remains totally supreme even to this day. This seems to have been acknowledged to some extent even his own time, and one example would be the eyewitness account given by Father Alexander Grospellier describing the visit of the Vatican Commission to the Solesmes paleographical workshop in September, 1904:

> Although some entered the scriptorium with some residual caution and defiance, they left with confidence in their souls and with praise on their lips for Dom Mocquereau and his worthy team.[12]

However, when it comes to the assimilation of all available manuscripts, the scholarly impetus and rationale for the equalist interpretation of rhythm and "restored" melodic text from the Middle ages, the artful combination and musical adaptation of (literally) the whole Gregorian repertoire into a consistent whole accepted by the musical community, and the conquest over every form of political and ecclesiastical opposition to produce the Vatican Edition, the credit here belongs to Dom Pothier. Pothier's editions of chant, officially adopted by the Church, have been sung, studied, and loved by hundreds of millions of Catholics.[13] Now that our Holy Father, Benedict XVI, has called for a renewal of the liturgy, interpreters of the Vatican Edition may consider singing the chant according to the rhythm that Abbot Pothier originally envisioned. Indeed, on 30 September, 2008, when the Church Music Association of America generously released the preliminary version of the 1908 Graduale for free download on its centennial, the traffic was so overwhelming that the server actually crashed. In his wildest dreams, while painstakingly hand-copying manuscripts of Gregorian chant, could Dom Pothier ever have imagined that?

12 Combe, The Restoration of Gregorian Chant, 291.

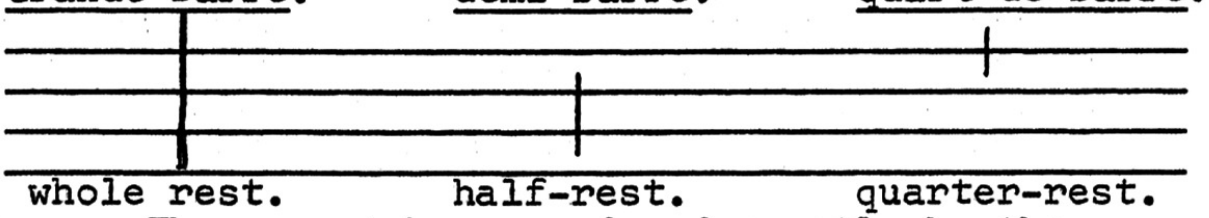
13 Many more Catholics than have ever sung any other edition of chant throughout history.

The second letter from the Manager of the Vatican Press deals with the spacing of the notes; the date is September 6, 1906.

Notice to Publishers.

Some explanation has been requested concerning the spaces which separate the notes, in the Vatican Edition of Gregorian Chant, in order to mark the phrasing of the chant.

First of all, there are the bars which divide the staff completely or partly; namely:



These must be reproduced exactly by the publishers. In the same way, account must be taken of the diverse spaces which must be left between notes or groups of notes over the one syllable.

These spaces correspond to those designated in typography by the terms 1/4, 1/2, 1.

1/4 equals the half of the width of a note.
1/2 equals the entire width of a note.
1 equals the width of two notes.*

These spaces are of obligation only in the case in question, that is to say, only between the groups which succeed one another on one and the same syllable.

They are left to the discretion of the compositor, for the rectification of his lines, 1) at the end of a group preceding a syllable, and 2) before or after a bar.

GIO. PASQ. SCOTTI,
Manager of the Vatican Press.

Rome, September 6th, 1906.

*In order to estimate the space to be left between two groups, the latter of which is to be carried over to the next line, one must reckon the space between the former group and the guide.[1] on how to use Adobe Reader :

---

(1) Do not attempt to use these huge PDF files directly from the internet.

Download them to your hard drive, and then open the file. This saves a lot of time.

(2) Your best friend in the world is the bookmark tool.

Example below: The red arrow points to the bookmark tool. Use it to "zip around" the document at incredible speeds.

(3) If the bookmark tool is your best friend, the "page" tool is your wife.

Example below: The PDF page number 514 (orange arrow) should correspond to the document page number 514 (pink arrow).

(4) The search tool is very useful.

Example below: Searching for "Domine" (green arrow) yields a result (yellow arrow)

(5) Notice that you can zoom in and zoom out.

Example below: The example is zoomed to 125% (purple arrow)

AARTSBISDOM MECHELEN

Mechelen, 18 Mei 1942

DEN ZEER EERWAARDEN HEER KANUNNIK VAN NUFFEL
BESTUURDER VAN HET LEMMENSGESTICHT.

MIJNHEER DE KANUNNIK,

Met groote voldoening begroeten wij het verschijnen van Nova Organi Harmonia, waarvan gij het zoo vurig betracht opstel tot een goed einde hebt kunnen leiden.

Zulk omvangrijk werk kon slechts ondernomen worden met de medewerking van uitnemende meesters, vertrouwd met de gregoriaansche melodieën, en onder de krachtdadige leiding van een hoofd, sinds lang tot deze taak voorbereid en met een vurige liefde tot de gewijde muziek bezield. Bovendien was het noodig, om de strengste eenheid van zienswijze en van lijnen te verzekeren, dat de toonkundigen tot dezelfde school van godsdienstige muziek zouden behooren. Het Lemmensgesticht te Mechelen is een der zeldzame artistieke middens dat aan deze voorwaarden voldoet ; het heeft de verheven en allernuttigste zending willen aanvaarden onze kerken te begiftigen met een orgelbegeleiding, die aan de eischen van de liturgie en van de kunst beantwoordt en tegelijkertijd in het bereik ligt van al de talenten. Iedereen weet welke schitterende verdiensten het Lemmensgesticht op het gebied van de gewijde muziek veroverd heeft : de uitgave van Nova Organi Harmonia is een nieuwe uiting van zijn edele en vruchtbare werkzaamheid ten bate van den goddelijken eeredienst.

Sinds bijna vijf-en-twintig jaar bezielt gij deze werkzaamheid, Mijnheer de Kanunnik, met uw geestdrift, met uw verheven ideaal van godsdienstige kunst en met uw voortdurend streven naar hooger volmaaktheid. Nova Organi Harmonia, vrucht van uw initiatief en van uw volhardende inspanningen, zal het gedenkteeken zijn van dit merkwaardig jubileum.

Is het wel noodig wenschen uit te brengen voor den bijval van uw werk ? Het beantwoordt zoozeer aan de verwachtingen van zoovelen, dat het voorzeker uiterst welkom zal zijn in de meest uitgebreide middens. Voortaan zullen de harmonieën, waarvan uw uitgave de overschrijving brengt, levend worden en opstijgen onder de gewelven van de heiligdommen ; zij zullen deelnemen aan de meest verheven handelingen van de katholieke liturgie, haar stem versmelten met de smeek- en dankgebeden van de Kerk, de diepste gevoelens van de godsdienstige ziel vertolken.

Uit ganscher harte zegenen wij het werk dat verschijnt in ons bisdom, de christelijke kunstenaars die hun talentvolle medewerking verleenden en al degenen die het zullen benuttigen in het begeleiden van den gregoriaanschen zang.

† J. E. KARD. VAN ROEY, Aartsbisschop van Mechelen.

ARCHEVÊCHÉ DE MALINES — Malines, le 18 mai 1942

A MONSIEUR LE CHANOINE VAN NUFFEL
DIRECTEUR DE L'INSTITUT LEMMENS.

MONSIEUR LE CHANOINE,

Nous saluons avec une vive satisfaction la publication de la Nova Organi Harmonia, dont vous avez réussi à achever la composition tant désirée.

Œuvre de grande envergure, elle ne pouvait être entreprise que par la collaboration de maîtres excellents, familiarisés avec les mélodies grégoriennes, et sous la forte direction d'un chef préparé de longue date à cette tâche et animé d'un culte fervent de la musique sacrée. Encore fallait-il, pour assurer la plus grande unité possible de vues et de lignes, que les compositeurs appartiennent à la même école de musique religieuse. L'Institut Lemmens de Malines est un des rares centres artistiques qui réalise ces conditions ; il a voulu assumer la haute et très utile mission de doter nos églises d'un accompagnement d'orgue, à la fois conforme à la liturgie et à l'art et accessible à tous les talents. Personne n'ignore les mérites éclatants que cet Institut s'est déjà acquis dans le domaine de la musique sacrée : l'édition de la Nova Organi Harmonia est une manifestation nouvelle de sa noble et féconde activité au service du culte divin.

Voici bientôt vingt-cinq ans que vous animez cette activité, Monsieur le Chanoine, de votre impulsion ardente, de votre haut idéal d'art religieux et de votre volonté de faire toujours mieux. La Nova Organi Harmonia, fruit de votre initiative et de vos efforts persévérants, sera le monument commémoratif de ce remarquable anniversaire.

Est-il besoin de former des vœux pour le succès de votre œuvre ? Elle répond si bien à l'attente d'un grand nombre qu'elle est assurée de trouver le meilleur accueil dans les milieux les plus étendus. Désormais, les harmonies dont votre publication apporte la transcription, prendront vie et s'élèveront sous les voûtes des sanctuaires ; elles s'associeront aux actes les plus sublimes de la liturgie catholique, mêleront leurs voix aux prières, aux supplications, aux actions de grâces de l'Église, exprimeront les sentiments les plus profonds de l'âme religieuse.

De grand cœur nous bénissons l'œuvre qui voit le jour dans notre diocèse, les artistes chrétiens qui y ont prêté leur concours talentueux et tous ceux qui s'en inspireront dans l'accompagnement du chant grégorien.

† J. E. CARD. VAN ROEY,
Archevêque de Malines.

Voorwoord van Z. E. H. Kanunnik VAN NUFFEL, zie Pars I, bl. IX.

VOORBERICHTEN

I. OVERSCHRIJVING VAN DE GREGORIAANSCHE MELODIE

a) De gregoriaansche melodienoot wordt verbeeld door de noot

b) De liquescentnoten of vloeinoten : cephalicus en epiphonus, door een noot van kleiner formaat

c) De ruitnootjes, ancus vormend, door nootjes van even klein formaat

d) De afzonderlijke « virga » wordt verbeeld door een noot gevolgd door een klein puntje

e) De « mora vocis », insgelijks door een noot gevolgd door een klein puntje

f) Het « quilisma » door het teeken

g) De « groepen » worden door verbindingsteekens afgelijnd. Deze beantwoorden getrouw aan de « neumatiek » van het « Graduale Romanum ».

h) « Pressus minor » wordt aangeduid door een verbindingsteeken tusschen de laatste en de eerste noot van beide groepen

i) « Salicus » wordt onderscheiden van « scandicus », door verdeeling van het verbindingsteeken over de tweede noot van « salicus » die het accent draagt

j) « Oriscus » wordt door een noot van gewoon formaat verbeeld en onderscheiden van « mora vocis » na de groep

k) Wanneer « quilisma » voorkomt in de tweede helft van een samengestelde groep, verwijst het verdeeld verbindingsteeken tevens naar de noot die het « quilisma » voorafgaat

l) « Distropha » en « tristropha » worden onderscheiden door afzonderlijke verbindingsteekens

II. SCHRIJFWIJZE AANGEWEND VOOR « BEGELEIDINGSSTEMMEN »

a) In de begeleiding wordt naast de zwarte noot slechts het teeken o gebruikt. Dit teeken heeft een « onbepaalde » waarde, en geldt steeds tot het inzetten van de volgende noot in dezelfde stem.

b) Wanneer een begeleidingsstem zich aansluit bij een andere stem, wordt deze stemvoering aangeteekend door een « dwarsstreep ».

Deze dwarsstrepen worden niet zelden aangewend om de verdubbeling van stemmen te vermijden, die het orgelspel compliceeren.

c) Wanneer de basnoot van een akkoord wordt overgenomen door de noot in tenor in het volgend akkoord, wordt deze stemvoering door een stippellijntje aangewezen, enkel om de aandacht te vestigen op het vereischte « legato ».

d) Item wanneer tenor van het voorgaand akkoord, basnoot wordt in het volgend akkoord.

e) Wanneer bas en tenor een gemeenzame noot vormen, dan wordt zulks door een dubbele noot aangeteekend.

f) Wanneer dan deze twee stemmen unisono voortloopen, bepalen we ons bij het schrijven van een enkele noot.

III. UITVOERING

a) De begeleiding onderstelt een steeds « aangehouden » orgelspel, behalve bij het einde van elke groote periode, aangeduid door een groote deelstreep getrokken door de twee notenbalken. Bij al de andere rustteekens : namelijk de vierde en de halve deelstreep, die getrouw overeenkomen met die van het Graduale Romanum, moet het laatste akkoord nauw verbonden blijven met het eerste akkoord van de volgende zinsnede (1).

b) De organisten zullen wel die « passages » onderscheiden welke zich gunstig leenen tot een pedaalbegeleiding. Deze zijn over het algemeen de in « breede ligging » geharmoniseerde deelen. De passages echter in « enge ligging » zijn minder geschikt om met pedaal te worden uitgevoerd, zooals b.v. de eerste inzet van het « Alleluia », waarvan de herhaling in breede ligging zich dan best leent voor het pedaal. De enge ligging treft men ook niet zelden aan bij den inzet van het « vers » na het « Alleluia », alsmede bij den inzet van het tweede deel van het « Graduale ».

(1) Uitzonderingen hieraan doen zich voor bij gebeurlijke afwisseling van solo en koor, overeenkomstig met de verandering van klavieren, zooals b.v. bij de herhaling van het « alleluia ».

Introduction de Mr le chanoine VAN NUFFEL, voir Pars I, p. IX*.

I. TRANSCRIPTION DE LA MÉLODIE GRÉGORIENNE

a) La note de la mélodie grégorienne est figurée par le signe •

b) Les notes liquescentes ou notes coulées : cephalicus et epiphonus, par une note d'un format plus petit

c) Les losanges formant un ancus par des notes d'un format plus petit

d) La virga isolée par une note suivie d'un petit point •.

e) La mora vocis aussi par une note suivie d'un petit point •.

f) Le quilisma par le signe

g) Les groupes sont démarqués par des ligatures ; elles répondent fidèlement à la neumatique du Graduale Romanum.

h) Le pressus minor est indiqué par une ligature entre la dernière note du premier groupe et la première note du groupe suivant

i) Le salicus se distingue du scandicus par la coupe de la ligature sur la deuxième note du salicus qui reçoit l'accent

j) L'oriscus est figuré par une note de format ordinaire • et se distingue de la mora vocis après le groupe
k) Quand un quilisma se trouve dans la seconde partie d'un groupe composé, la ligature coupée renvoie également à la note qui précède le quilisma
l) Les distrophæ et tristrophæ, quand elles se suivent, sont marquées par des ligatures spéciales

II. NOTATIONS ADOPTÉES POUR LES VOIX D'ACCOMPAGNEMENT

a) Dans l'accompagnement, nous employons, à côté de la note noire • le signe o . Ce signe a une valeur indéterminée et compte jusqu'à l'entrée de la note suivante dans la même voix.

b) Quand une voix d'accompagnement passe à l'unisson avec une autre voix, nous indiquons cette marche des voix par une ligne transversale.

Nous faisons un usage assez fréquent de ces lignes transversales pour éviter le redoublement des voix qui complique le jeu d'orgue.

c) Quand la fondamentale d'un accord passe au ténor dans l'accord suivant, ce mouvement est marqué par un pointillé, uniquement pour appeler l'attention sur le legato requis.

d) Item quand la note du ténor devient la fondamentale de l'accord suivant.

e) Quand la basse et le ténor passent à l'unisson, nous l'indiquons par une note doublée.

f) Lorsque ensuite ces deux notes continuent à l'unisson, nous nous bornons à écrire une seule note.

III. EXÉCUTION

a) Notre accompagnement suppose toujours un jeu d'orgue lié, sauf à la fin de chaque grande période indiquée par une grande barre passant par les deux portées. A toutes les autres pauses : au quart de la barre et à la demi-barre, qui correspondent exactement à celles du Graduale Romanum, le dernier accord doit rester étroitement uni au premier accord de la phrase suivante (1).

b) Les organistes discerneront sans peine les passages qui se prêtent avantageusement à l'accompagnement de pédale. Ce sont généralement les parties harmonisées en position large. Par contre, les passages en position serrée conviennent moins à ce genre d'exécution, comme, par ex., la première intonation de l'Alleluia (où la reprise en position large se prête d'autant mieux à la pédale). La position serrée s'emploie assez souvent à l'intonation du verset après l'Alleluia, de même qu'à celle de la deuxième partie du Graduel.

(1) Exception est faite à cette norme lors de l'alternance éventuelle du solo et du chœur, correspondante au changement de clavier, par ex. à la reprise de l'Alleluia.

21. MARTII. — S. BENEDICTI ABBATIS.

Missa. Os justi, de Communi Abbatum, Pars IV, p. 86.

De Festis duplicibus quæ transferri possunt, et veniunt a Dominica Palmarum usque ad Octavam Paschæ, nihil fit; sed post Octavam celebrantur: et tunc in fine Introitus ante Psalmum dicuntur duo Allelúia, et in fine Offertorii et Communionis, unum Allelúia. Post Epistolam non dicitur Graduale, sed dicuntur duo Versus cum quatuor Allelúia, ut notatum est in Sabbato in Albis. Et hoc idem observatur in omnibus Festis quæ celebrantur inter Pascha et Pentecosten. De Duplicibus vero quæ transferri nequeunt, et de Semiduplicibus occurrentibus in Dominica Palmarum, ultimo triduo Hebdomadæ majoris et triduo Paschæ nihil fit: reliquis diebus a Dominica Palmarum usque ad Octavam Paschæ inclusive, fit de eis tantum commemoratio.
